A Note from Jim

There is a wonderful spirit of worship and fellowship in our Sunday morning worship services. I hope the freedom that we have in worship is evident to those participating through the radio and online. Brother Earl has been bringing us anointed sermons challenging us to live lives obedient to Christ, to love each other and to reach out to others.

I am thankful that we have Christian hymn writers who have been inspired to write songs that support any topic that may be preached. The message Sunday called us to walk the narrow way to live a life of discipleship. Louisa Steads' words "'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus" tells us to trust in Jesus as we live our daily life in discipleship. Stanza 3 says,

*(3) Yes, 'tis sweet to trust in Jesus,
Just from sin and self to cease;
Just from Jesus simply taking
Life and rest, and joy and peace.*

*Chorus: Jesus, Jesus, how I trust Him!
How I've proved Him o'er and o'er!
Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus!
O for grace to trust Him more!*

Donna and I left Sunday after church to drive to Lexington Baptist Church in Lexington, SC to enjoy a rehearsal and worship service with the SC Singing Churchmen. It is a wonderful blessing to be able to sing and worship with this talented and committed group of worship leaders. Our next worship time with them will be Thursday, January 21, 2021 at FBC Conway, 6:45pm. I hope some of you will be able to join us for worship in January.

We are taking a step in trust and starting adult choir rehearsal back this week. Please pray that God will protect us and use us as we lead in worship for His glory.

Love ya, Jim

In a called business meeting on Nov. 8, there were two motions by committees brought to the church body for vote.

The Nominating Committee presented a motion that the Nominating Committee report/booklet be accepted as presented to the church body. These reports/booklets were handed out to all present at morning worship and are available to all members at the church office. This motion was passed unanimously by voice vote of members present.

The second motion was made from the Personnel Committee to hire Rev. Earl Spivey as Supply Pastor at a salary of $250 weekly and Rev. Jim Smith as Worship Leader at a salary of $300 weekly. These salaries and positions to begin on 11/11/20. This motion passed unanimously by voice vote of members present.

We appreciate the ministry that Earl and Jim have been providing the church in recent months and are thankful for their willingness to serve among us. We, also, acknowledge the work of these committees in bringing these recommendations to the church body.
