Weekly Newsletter of Tabor City Baptist Church

First let me say that I am doing better and glad for the increased strength God has given me. My breathing is much improved and therefore my ability to move about. I am still left with the atrial fibrillation which the doctors want to address soon with an ablation. I enjoyed greatly being able to be back with you this past Sunday.

As we move into the year 2021 our Sunday schedule is marked by variety. We have just celebrated the unique experience of Communion. I apologize to those unable to be present for not getting the Communion elements to you. I know that you too want to join with your church family in affirming your faith through the taking of the bread and juice. This Sunday we will participating in the Sanctity of Human Life Sunday. It is an annual time for churches to reflect upon what Jesus teaches us about how sacred the human life is in His sight. It is about much more than opposing abortion. It is a call to see and relate to each life with a divine perspective and resist the degraded human nature of using and disregarding fellow human beings.

As you have seen we observe Baptist Men's Sunday on the 24th. Special activities are planned to encourage the men of Tabor City Baptist to stand up and boldly serve our Lord. The Baptist Women's Sunday will be observed at the end of February with a challenging time for the women to serve devotedly as well. In between will be the annual focus on love as we celebrate Valentine's Day. A lot of variety and I hope a powerful time to be deeper devoted to worshiping and serving Christ in our life and church.

A Note from Jim

Donna and I spent the weekend with our daughter, Jenny, and her family, in Signal Mountain, Tennessee. I appreciate Sam Rogers leading the music Sunday and Dennis Jones helping out also. Thank you for the opportunity to have some family time. We listened to the choir music from the Adult Choir Reunion CD while driving. What an inspiration! If you have not listened to this music for a while, I want to encourage you to do so. Many of my favorite choir songs are on this cd, including: Wonderful Name, Jesus; Holy Is He; The Majesty and Glory of Your Name; My Eternal King; Behold the Lamb; Cornerstone and many more. What a blessing to sing along with these beautiful worship songs.
