Wednesday Bible Study

Starting this Wednesday morning at 11:00 AM we will begin a weekly Bible study for all who want to come. Whether you are retired or wanting to come on your lunch break, all are welcome. We will begin with a study of the kings of Judah. I believe you will be encouraged and able to follow God more clearly by learning from the kings of Judah. We will start with Solomon's son Rehoboam and continue until Josiah. A lunch is being prepared for all who want to stay and fellowship together at our first meeting. We will then decide if you want to continue the lunch and if so, how it should be continued. I'm praying this will become a church and community special event each week. See you in the sanctuary.

Interested in Discipleship?

In an effort to reestablish our work of growing disciples, (that is learners and followers of Christ) I am inviting all interested in participating in group studies or leading studies to join with me on Sunday evening April 25 at 6:00 PM. I will be sharing some ideas of how we can focus and participate in an organized effort to obey Christ by becoming His disciple and guiding others to be His disciple as well. Join with me in following Christ's command to make disciples of all peoples, (Matt. 28:19) by doing our part in better following and leading others to follow.

Bro. Earl

COMING SUNDAY

What does the word "straining" bring to your mind? Struggle, determination, frustration, sweat, tiredness...? Paul strained toward a goal he had not yet reached. Perhaps we too should be spiritually straining as we walk with Christ. See Philippians 3:10-14
