Weekly Newsletter of Tabor City Baptist Church

*I*s Sunday School important to you? I want to encourage you to make it an important part of your Christian experience. This Sunday we had planned our Sunday School Kickoff Breakfast. Unfortunately, due to several circumstances, we will have to postpone it until next month. But let me share a few encouraging thoughts about Sunday School. Many churches no longer have a weekly time of Bible education. Some have it for the children but not adults. I am convinced that learning what the Bible teaches us is important for all ages. I can only preach to you in our worship hour. But, in Sunday School you explore the Bible and are able to ask questions and give insights as you and others study a selected portion of the Bible for that day. As important as the worship and preaching time is, don't omit the necessity of weekly Bible Study and exploration with friends. Also it is a meaningful place of having a more personal relationship with others attending church. Personal encouragement and support are much needed in our seeking to be a Christian. It is not only a place to grow and be encouraged, it is a great place to bring a friend so they can discover what the Bible is saying as well. I think the Sunday School is important enough that I attend a class each week to set an example for others. So I can honestly say, join me in studying the Bible each week in Sunday School. You never know what God might help you understand and experience as you discover the lessons God has for us in the Bible. Start now to invite and encourage friends to join you in attending Bible study weekly. Let's use caution to protect other from the virus but let us not forsake our studying the Bible together.

Blessings, Bro. Earl

Coming Sunday

Being saved is a relational experience. Jesus died to give us forgiveness and eternal life for sure. He also died so we could join His eternal family. Jesus, in Luke 13:22-27, reminds us that being saved is being in relationship with Christ.

Wednesday Bible Study (11am)

Wednesday, 9-15-21 King Jehoiakim was king for 11 years. He was evil in his ways and led Judah one step closer to destruction. Look with me at how God warns us time and again to avoid what harms us and allow God to show us His favor.

Wednesday, 9-22-21 King Jehoiakim had a son called Jehoiachin. Jehoiachin inherited disaster from his father. As we look at his life, we can see how God often shows unanticipated grace so He will be honored.

The family of Katherine Coleman would like to express our deepest appreciation for the kindness you have shown. We thank you for the cards, visits, phone calls, flowers, food, and especially your prayers during her convalescence and passing. The food you prepared for us before the funeral was especially perfect for family members coming in.

Mama loved her church family. Please pray for us as we face the days ahead with her sweet memory and spirit.
