Weekly Newsletter of Tabor City Baptist Church

Let me begin with a few odds and ends. I feel much out of the flow of things since my recent lung and heart problems. I am looking forward to getting back into some of the things that are important for the life of our church body. I look forward to returning to our study of Hebrews on Wednesday evenings this week. I also plan to restart the discipleship study, Studies In Christian Living, this coming Sunday evening. I am much appreciative of your constant prayer support. I am adjusting to what I am physically able to do and desire to do all I can but not more than I should.

This Sunday my dear brother, Rev. Denley Caughman, will be speaking. I will be speaking at a local church that wants to hear about Bethesda for Single Mothers. Remember me as I share with them the work God is doing in the lives of mothers and their children through Bethesda.

As regards to my health I am waiting for appointments to be made to resolve a few final questions before a final decision can be made. Once these have been made clear the committee will be able to decide what can be done about the continued weakening of my heart. Whatever the future holds, each day is a gift from God. May we all commit to making the most of it and being grateful for God's kindness to us each day. Let's rejoice in God's goodness given to us.

Blessings, Bro Earl
