Notes from Jim

A big thank you to Ann Caughman for playing the organ during worship service this past Sunday. It was so nice to hear the beautiful sound of the organ again and have that added to our worship.

I really enjoyed the singing of the beautiful hymns Sunday morning and felt that I could hear the choir and congregation stronger than usual. I'm reminded to again thank God for these talented and gifted people that write these songs for us.

Mark Blankenship and Terry York, who wrote Worthy of Worship both worked for Lifeway of the SBC and were instrumental in helping churches with their music ministries. Audrey Mieir, who wrote His Name is Wonderful, has passed on but worked for a time with evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson. Stuart Townend who wrote How Deep the Father's Love For Us is the son of a pastor in England and is himself a worship leader. Albert Malotte, who lived from 1895-1964 was an organist and composer, best known for the moving arrangement of The Lord's Prayer that we sang Sunday. All of this music moved me to worship and I pray it did you too.

Love, Jim
