Weekly Newsletter of Tabor City Baptist Church

I hope that our series on The Rebuilding Code helped us focus and commit ourselves to becoming the church Christ intends for us to be. May our devotion be evident and growing. May our commitment to live according to God's instructions bring God's pleasure and favor upon us. May our obedience show us the pathway Christ has chosen for us. And, may the church God molds of us give us a powerful identity in our community.

We are now only five weeks from Easter. I hope knowing that brings a joyful anticipation into your spiritual life. To look back on the Passion Week and the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ should be humbling and challenging to us. Each year God has something new to show us and more to say to us about becoming more like Jesus. This year I invite you to take "A Walk with Peter." This will be a series leading up to Easter in which we follow the life of Peter. None of the disciples are as open and revealed to us as Peter. His heart, impulse, fear and faith are all displayed for our learning and growth. Let's gather around Peter and follow him to Easter and beyond. Let's allow his story to guide us in following the ways and truths of Jesus. We start this Sunday morning and who knows where Jesus may lead us in following Him. Look ahead in Mark 8:31-33.

Blessings, Bro Earl

Notes from Jim

Donna and I enjoyed our week of vacation. Thank you so much for the opportunity to be away from responsibilities for a week. It was wonderful to be back home leading worship again on Sunday. Thanks to Sam Rogers for so capably filling in for me while I was away.

We will be back with choir rehearsal this week as we are now focusing on music for the Easter season.

Have a blessed week in the Lord.

Love, Jim

Jim Henry, former pastor of First Baptist Orlando and former SBC president, has written a book entitled, What Now? Jim walked through Alzheimer's disease with his wife. The book outlines that journey and shares helpful advice. The North American Mission Board sent us a copy. If you would like to read it, it is available in the church office.
