Guest Speaker Sunday, May 15th Pastor Bill Breon

Pastor Bill Breon has served in full-time ministry for 26 years. While living in Chesapeake, Virginia, Pastor Bill walked away from a lucrative career with General Motors to accept a pastoral position with New Life Christian Fellowship. This was an exciting season of learning and growth. Pastor Bill planted a Church in Great Neck and began leading missions trips to the Amazon region of Peru.

After several years of fruitful ministry Pastor Bill accepted a Senior Pastor position at Immanuel Baptist Church in Wilmington Delaware. The church grew from eighty people to over four hundred. Pastor Bill launched several ministries in the Wilmington area.

While pastoring a growing church he also continued to lead missions trips around the world. He has been on over 50 trips and enjoys encouraging indigenous pastors in leadership conferences. Pastor Bill authored the Shepherds Manual that is now translated in 4 languages. Over 3,000 manuals have been distributed in pastors conferences.

Bill earned his Doctor of Ministry degree from Colorado Theological Seminary, his Masters from Regent University, his Bachelors degree from Virginia Wesleyan University and his Bible diploma from Appalachian Bible College.
