A Note From Jim

Randall Thompson (1899-1984) was a renown American composer particularly noted for his choral works. His compositions dated from 1922 to 1983. His composition, "The Last Words of David," based on 2 Samuel 23:3-4 (KJV) was published in 1949.

On Sunday, July 4, 1976 in celebration of the US Bicentennial the TCBC Adult Choir sang "The Last Words of David" by Randall Thompson in a special afternoon worship service.

This past Sunday, during worship, we listened and watched a performance of "The Last Words of David" by a large group of men and boys from Hong Kong, directed by Samuel Pang of Hong Kong who is a conductor, violist, educator, and Christian worship leader. If you missed hearing this awesome choral performance of this song I encourage you to listen to it on YouTube on your phone or computer.

I want to commend our choir for their faithfulness so far this summer. The presentation of "We Shall See Jesus" two weeks ago was exciting and worshipful. Thank you adult choir.

Thanks to Teddy Bullard and Sam Rogers for their rousing performance of "God Bless the USA" this past Sunday. We are truly blessed to have such wonderful talent in our congregation.

The choir will be back to rehearsal next Wednesday at 6:45pm following prayer meeting. Come and join us.

Love, Jim

From your Nominating Committee

We are working hard to fulfill committees and we ask for your continued prayers as we go forth with our considerations to complete our positions of service to TCBC!

If you feel led in a specific direction, please contact any member of our committee. Also, please be in prayer if you have been asked to consider a position.

Thank you,
Meredith J. Lay
