Weekly Newsletter of Tabor City Baptist Church

Notes from Jim

Pam texted me Saturday afternoon to let me know she was sick and would not be here Sunday morning to play for worship. Pray for Pam that she recovers quickly and fully.

I appreciate Teddy Bullard being willing to step up and lead the music on such short notice so that I could fill in on the piano. Thank you Teddy for your leadership and sharing your vocal talents.

Thank you also to the choir for their willingness to sing without a director on a fairly difficult song. "This world Is Not My Home" was in the songbook we used in the little country church where I grew up and this is one of my favorite arrangements of an older gospel song.

Donna and I will be traveling for several weeks beginning next week and there will be no choir rehearsals Wednesday, August 24 through Wednesday, September 14. I will be gone 3 Sundays and Sam Rogers and Phyllis have graciously agreed to fill in for me in my absence. I am asking the choir members to please be in the choir loft each Sunday I am gone to help support and lead in worship.

Please pray for us as we travel and get the opportunity to visit with some family we haven't seen for 2 plus years.

Congratulations to our Kindergarteners!

We are so excited for you!
Starting Sunday, September 4, you will begin attending "Big Church".
You will get to sing, listen and learn more about Jesus!
