A Note from Jim

We had a wonderful time away this past weekend as we met up with all of our 5 children at Hilton Head, SC to celebrate Emily's 40th birthday. Thank you for the time off from church responsibilities for those few days.

I was able to listen to the worship service on my phone Sunday. Thank you to Sam Rogers for leading the worship music and for leading the men's choir. Thank you also to all the men who sang in the choir. You sounded great on that arrangement of "I'll Fly Away." Pam did a wonderful job of playing for the service and on the special music.

Thank you to Teddy Bullard for his worshipful solo music. It's always a blessing to hear Teddy sing.

Continue praying for Pastor Earl as his health struggles continue.

Love,
Jim
