The family of Don Watts would like to thank the church family for the many acts of kindness shown during Don’s recent passing. Your cards, visits, calls, flowers, food, prayers, and comforting words were so helpful during this most difficult time. Words cannot even begin to express the appreciation and heartfelt thanks we feel. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Special thanks to Rev. Hemminger, Jim Smith and Dennis Jones for their words of comfort.

The Watts Family

Dear Church Family,

This letter is simply to thank you for the support you have given to Bethesda for Single Mothers. Our commitment has been to trust and seek God to provide for the work we feel He has called us to do. As a result, you have given to make this ministry possible. Presently we are housing 5 mothers and 5 children. Others have been with us and are now back on their feet and productive citizens of our communities. One mother that recently moved into an apartment and is now on her own wrote, “...You have blessed us in so many ways since we have arrived.... Having this time to be still and learn so much about the Lord has changed my life completely and will be the foundation of my children and their children too!” Continue to pray that God will use us to bring hope, security and spiritual life to the mothers we help. Thank you for the joy of seeing hope born from despair, laughter returning after the pain and withered plants come to life with beautiful blooms that glorify Jesus Christ our Lord. Thanks for your participation with us.
